

CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

Sample document — not a live contract

Between: Acme Widgets Limited
17 Industrial Way
Manchester M1 4AA
Company No. 09876543
("the Employer")

And: Jane Sample Employee
44 Test Lane
Manchester M14 5BB
("the Employee")

Effective: 1 October 2026

1. Job title and duties

The Employee is appointed as Senior Widget Fitter, reporting to the Head of Production. The Employee agrees to perform the duties reasonably assigned to them, and to observe all lawful instructions given by the Employer. The Employer may from time to time require the Employee to perform other duties consistent with their skills and experience.

2. Commencement date and continuous service

Employment commences on the effective date shown above. No previous employment counts towards continuous service.

3. Place of work

The Employee's normal place of work is the Employer's premises at 17 Industrial Way, Manchester M1 4AA. The Employer may require the Employee to work temporarily at other locations within reasonable travelling distance.

4. Hours of work

The Employee's normal working hours are 37.5 per week, worked Monday to Friday between the hours of 08:30 and 17:00 with a 30-minute unpaid lunch break. The Employee may be required to work reasonable additional hours as the needs of the business dictate.

5. Remuneration

The Employee's salary is £38,500 per annum, payable monthly in arrears by credit transfer on the last working day of each month. Salary will be reviewed annually in April, though a review does not imply an increase.

6. Holiday entitlement

The Employee is entitled to 25 working days' paid holiday per holiday year, in addition to the eight statutory bank holidays observed in England and Wales. The Employer's holiday year runs from 1 April to 31 March. Holiday requests must be made using the Employer's absence-booking system and are subject to approval by the Employee's line manager and cover requirements for the team.

Unused holiday entitlement of up to five days may be carried forward into the next holiday year with prior written approval; any excess is forfeited. On termination, outstanding accrued holiday will be paid in the final salary payment; excess taken will be deducted from the final salary.

7. Sickness absence and sick pay

If the Employee is unable to work due to illness or injury they must notify their line manager as soon as reasonably practicable on the first day of absence. Absences of seven calendar days or fewer may be self-certified. Absences of more than seven calendar days require a Statement of Fitness for Work (Fit Note) from a medical practitioner.

Statutory Sick Pay applies in accordance with prevailing legislation. Occupational sick pay is at the Employer's discretion and is not a contractual entitlement.

8. Pension

The Employer operates an auto-enrolment workplace pension scheme in accordance with the Pensions Act 2008. Details of the current scheme, employer and employee contribution rates, and opt-out procedures are set out in the Employee Handbook.

9. Confidentiality

The Employee acknowledges that during the course of their employment they may have access to information that is confidential to the Employer, its clients, and its suppliers. The Employee shall not, during or after employment, disclose such information to any third party, or use it for their own or another's advantage, except in the proper performance of their duties or as required by law.

10. Data protection

The Employer will process the Employee's personal data in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018. Details of the processing, its lawful basis, and the Employee's rights are set out in the Employer's Employee Privacy Notice, available on the HR portal.

11. Notice period

During the first six months of employment, either party may terminate this contract by giving one week's written notice. Thereafter, the Employee is required to give one month's written notice. The Employer will give the Employee statutory minimum notice or one month, whichever is greater, in accordance with the Employment Rights Act 1996.

12. Right to work

The Employee warrants that they have the right to work in the United Kingdom and will provide the Employer with satisfactory evidence of that right prior to commencement of employment, in accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006. Failure to provide or maintain valid right-to-work documentation is grounds for termination.

13. Grievance and disciplinary procedures

The Employer's grievance and disciplinary procedures are set out in the Employee Handbook. These procedures do not form part of this contract and may be amended by the Employer from time to time.

14. Variation

No variation of the terms of this contract shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties.

15. Entire agreement

This contract, together with the Employee Handbook and any documents referred to in it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior understandings or arrangements.

16. Governing law

This contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

Signed on behalf of the Employer:

Name: _____

Position: _____

Date: _____

Employee signature

Name: _____

Date: _____